15. Case Study :

Black Rock Company's has recently appointed five electronic engineers whose consolidated pay is Rs. 1,08,000 per annum. The company's HR guidelines say that since at the time of the salary is fixed at more than Rs. 6500 per month, they do not come under EPF contribution limit, and thus the company need not pay any PF share for them. Those five electronic engineers are also not very particular on PF deduction.

Questions

- (a) Can this situation be treated as an exception ?
- (b) Should the company be brought under PF list and should the employer's share of 12% of Rs. 6500 per month be paid ?
